thanks. Richard"

The next meeting is this Tues, 16 April, at

Murray's when we will be looking at The Blasphemer by Nigel Farndale. New members are always very welcome. (477568)

BOOKWORMS had a lovely afternoon tea recently at The Chocolate Teapot cafe in Mill Street, Bideford. So – we invite all (within reason) from our Church Family to join us there for an afternoon tea – it's

The cost is £7.50 per person which includes a 55p tip each. Numbers are limited to 45 (we will have sole use) and a non returnable payment in full is required on booking a place. So be quick to sign the list at back of church or contact me (477568) to reserve a place. Maggie Murray

KING OF KINGS MAJESTY,
God of heaven living in me.
Gentle Saviour, closest friend.
Strong Deliverer, beginning and end.
All within me falls at your throne.
*Your majesty, I can but bow,
I lay my all before you now.
In royal robes I don't deserve
I live to serve your majesty.*

Earth and heaven worship you.
Love eternal, faithful and true.
Who bought the nations, ransomed souls,
Brought this sinner near to your throne.
All within me cries out in praise.
Your majesty ...

Lord we want to see people through your eyes,
and see situations as you see them.

Lord, we give you our eyes.

Lord we want to hear your voice speaking to
us,

and hear the needs of people around us.

Lord, we give you our ears.

Lord we want to speak your words,
words that are truthful and kind and which build others up.

Lord, we give you our mouths.

Lord we want to use our hands and our feet
to serve you,

going to the places you call us to and doing
the things you want us to do.

Lord we give you our hands and our feet.

Lord we want to love you with our whole
hearts,

and love our neighbours as ourselves.

Lord we give you our hearts.

Lord we want to obey you, so we offer you all that we are and all that we have.

Not our will Lord, but your will be done in our lives.

Lord we give you our lives.

Amen.

BIBLE READINGS

Matthew 21: 1-11 (Good News Version)

As Jesus and his disciples approached Jerusalem, they came to Bethphage at the Mount of Olives. There Jesus sent two of the disciples on ahead with these instructions: "Go to the village there ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied up with her colt beside her. Untie them and bring them to me. And if anyone says anything, tell him, 'The Master needs them'; and then he will let them go at once. "This happened in order to make come true what the prophet had said: "Tell the city of Zion, Look your king is coming to you! He is humble and rides on a donkey and on a colt, the foal of a donkey." So the disciples went and did what Jesus had told them to do: they brought the donkey and the colt, threw their cloaks over them, and Jesus got on. A large crowd of people spread their cloaks on the road while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. The crowds walking in front of Jesus and those walking behind began to shout, "Praise to David's Son! God bless him who comes in the name of the Lord! Praise be to God!" When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was thrown into an uproar. "Who is he?" the people asked. "This is the prophet Jesus, from Nazareth in Galilee," the crowds answered.

Luke 19: 28-38 (Good News Version)

After Jesus said this, he went on in front of them toward Jerusalem. As he came near Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, he sent two disciples ahead with these instructions: "Go to the village there ahead of you; as you go in, you will find a colt tied up that has never been ridden. Untie it and bring it here. If someone asks you why you are untying it, tell him that the Master needs it." They went on their way and found everything just as Jesus had told them. As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying it?" "The Master needs it," they answered, and they took the colt to Jesus. Then they threw their cloaks over the animal and helped Jesus get on. As he rode on, people spread their cloaks on the road. When he came near Jerusalem, at the place where the road went down the Mount of Olives, the large crowd of his disciples began to thank God and praise him in loud voices for all the great things that they had seen: "God bless the king who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory to God!"

SONG

COME, PEOPLE OF THE RISEN KING,
Who delight to bring Him praise.
Come, all and tune your hearts to sing
To the Morning Star of grace.
From the shifting shadows of the earth
We will lift our eyes to Him,
Where steady arms of mercy reach
To gather children in.

*Rejoice! Rejoice! Let every tongue rejoice!
One heart, one voice, O Church of Christ, rejoice!*

Come, those whose joy is morning sun
And those weeping through the night.
Come, those who tell of battles won,
And those struggling in the fight.
For His perfect love will never change,
And His mercies never cease,
But follow us through all our days
With the certain hope of peace.

Come, young and old from every land,
Men and women of the faith.
Come, those with full or empty hands,
Find the riches of His grace.
Over all the world, His people sing,
Shore to shore we hear them call
The Truth that cries through every age;
'Our God is all in all'.

PRAISE IS RISING, eyes are turning to you,
we turn to you.
Hope is stirring, hearts are yearning for you,
we long for you.

When we see you, we find strength to face the
day;
in your presence all our fears are washed
away,
washed away.
